

I am a Continental Airlines frequent flyer. While I am not a member of the Continental Presidents Club, I support Continental's Petition to the FCC. Continental should be allowed to provide wireless LAN access to its Presidents Club members as a free service at any airport where there is a Club. Forcing Continental to shut down its wireless LAN service would force Club members to use a for-fee wireless LAN service, and that is restraint of trade.